To whom it may concern:

Orrin Shawl has been freelancing at the Daily News for the past three years, in addition to being a student at Central Michigan University.

Orrin is a pleasure to work with, as well as being an excellent reporter. He is thoughtful, thorough and has grown to be a good writer.

Orrin has covered many, many different areas while writing for us, all by choice. He tackles all assignments with vigor and does so in a timely manner. He also has done double duty, manning a camera for events where we cannot provide a photographer.

If I had an opening I certainly would recommend Orrin for the job. He is a hard worker and is not afraid to try new things.
